STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer. You must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon [i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus ("nunchucks") or tasers].
- 11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- 13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

DEFENDANT: Jennifer Rivera CASE NUMBER: 21-cr-377

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1. The Defendant shall be confined to her residence for a period of 6 months commencing at the direction of the U.S. Probation Office and as soon as practicable. During this time, the Defendant shall be required to be at her residence at all times except for approved absences for gainful employment, community service, religious services, medical care, educational or training programs, and at other such times as may be specifically authorized by the U.S. Probation Office. The Defendant shall comply with the conditions of location monitoring, which program may include an electronic monitoring device or voice identification. The Defendant shall permit the probation officer to access the residence at all times and maintain a telephone at the residence without any custom services or portable cordless equipment. The Defendant shall comply with any other specific conditions of home confinement as the probation officer requires. The Defendant shall pay the costs of electronic monitoring.
- 2. The Defendant shall participate in a mental health program for evaluation and/or treatment and abide by the rules of any such program until satisfactorily discharged.
- 3. The Defendant is to refrain from employment wherein she has control of bank accounts or account information. To support this condition, the Court finds that (1) a reasonably direct relationship existed between the Defendant's occupation and the conduct relevant to the convicted offense, (2) imposition of this restriction is reasonably necessary to protect the public because there is reason to believe that, absent this restriction, the defendant will continue to engage in unlawful conduct similar to that for which she was convicted, and (3) the time frame and structure of this special condition is for the minimum time frame and minimum extent necessary to protect the public.
- 4. The Defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Office with full disclosure of her financial records to include yearly income tax returns upon the request of the U.S. Probation Office. The Defendant shall cooperate with the probation officer in the investigation of her financial dealings and shall provide truthful monthly statements of her income.
- 5. The Defendant is prohibited from incurring any new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer, unless she is in compliance with the payment schedule for any restitution obligation. The Defendant shall not encumber or liquidate any interest in any asset unless it is in the direct service of the restitution obligation or otherwise has the express approval of the Court.
- 6. In the event the restitution and special assessment are not paid prior to the commencement of supervised release, the Defendant shall satisfy the amount due in monthly installments of not less than $250, to commence 30 days after release from confinement.
- 7. The Defendant shall notify the United States Attorney for this District within 30 days of any change of mailing address or residence that occurs while any portion of the restitution remains unpaid.
